Spellcasting

Ability	Intelligence	Spell save DC	13
Spell attack	+5	Prepared spells	4 = INT mod 3 + Wizard level 1
1st-level spell slots	[] []	Ritual casting	Wizard rituals in spellbook can be cast without preparing them, adding 10 minutes.
Arcane Recovery	1/day after a short rest	Recovery amount	One 1st-level slot at wizard level 1.

Cantrips known	Use
Fire Bolt	Main ranged damage cantrip.
Mage Hand	Manipulate small objects at a distance; excellent for cautious exploration.
Prestidigitation	Minor sensory/cleaning/marketing effects; ideal noble-wizard flavour and utility.

Spellbook - 1st level	Prepared?	Tactical note
Mage Armor	[x]	Long defensive buff; AC 15.
Shield	[x]	Emergency reaction defence.
Sleep	[x]	Excellent low-level crowd control.
Magic Missile	[x]	Reliable force damage.
Detect Magic	[] ritual	Cast as ritual from spellbook when time allows.
Find Familiar	[] ritual	Requires 10 gp of specific consumed components; ask DM before pre-buying.

Play pattern: stay behind the front line, open with Sleep when it can end a dangerous fight, otherwise conserve slots and use Fire Bolt. Keep Shield available if you are likely to be attacked.

Conditions and tracking

Inspiration	Death saves	Concentration checks
[]	Successes [] [] [] Failures [] [] []	When damaged while concentrating: CON save DC 10 or half damage, whichever is higher. Alphie has +2 CON save.

Equipment, Identity, and Campaign Fit

A ready-to-place character for a serious, source-faithful Storm King's Thunder table.

Starting equipment - no purchases assumed

Source	Items
Wizard	Dagger; component pouch; scholar's pack; spellbook.
Scholar's pack	Backpack, book of lore, ink, ink pen, 10 sheets of parchment, little bag of sand, small knife.
Noble background	Fine clothes, signet ring, scroll of pedigree, purse with 25 gp.
Currency	25 gp unspent. If DM allows pre-session shopping, consider spending 10 gp on Find Familiar components.

Proficiencies, languages, and background feature

Armor	None	Weapons	Daggers, darts, slings, quarterstaves, light crossbows
Tools	Dragonchess set	Languages	Common, Giant, Elvish
Background feature	Position of Privilege	Session-zero note	This should create social access, not override the DM or the adventure.

Alphie J. Roane - spoiler-safe Forgotten Realms hook

Alphie J. Roane is a younger son of a minor noble household whose influence depends more on letters, ledgers, and old obligations than on armies. He was educated by tutors in Waterdeep and taught to read omens, weather-signs, noble correspondence, and older scripts. His family has trade friends, distant cousins, and brittle favours across the North, but no power strong enough to bend events. That suits the campaign: Alphie can belong in the world without forcing Marcus to rewrite it.

He travels north with a signet ring, a pedigree scroll, too many questions, and an uneasy conviction that the patterns in recent reports are not random. His aim is not glory first, but responsibility: if small folk are in danger, a noble name should mean service.

Personality trait	Ideal
I look for patterns before trusting appearances, and I write down more than I say.	Responsibility. Rank means duty before comfort.
Bond	Flaw
House Roane's name should be rebuilt through protection, truth, and useful service.	When anxious, I can over-explain, over-plan, and underestimate plain practical wisdom.

Session-zero commitments for Claude/Marcus

- Alphie is built to cooperate with the party and follow adventure hooks.
- He is not a secret prince, chosen one, heir to a canon faction, or owner of special magic items.
- Noble status gives roleplay texture only; it should not force NPCs to obey him.
- Divination is a level 2 plan. No Portent dice before level 2.
- Giant as a language is chosen for campaign usefulness and scholarly flavour; DM can swap it if it feels too tailored.

Rules Audit and Level-Up Plan

Designed to survive a strict Session 0 check without asking the DM for special permission.

Rules audit

Item	Result	Why it is clean
Level	1	Storm King's Thunder can begin at level 1; this sheet is for the opening table.
Ability scores	Point buy legal	Pre-racial scores cost exactly 27 points.
Race	Standard Human	+1 to all six ability scores; no variant human or feat.
Class	Wizard 1	Correct proficiencies, spell slots, spellbook size, and prepared spell count.
Subclass	Planned only	Arcane Tradition is chosen at wizard level 2 under 2014 rules.
Background	Noble	Adds History, Persuasion, one gaming set, one language, and background equipment.
Equipment	Package legal	Uses wizard equipment choices plus noble background gear; no armour, shield, or special items.
Spells	Core 1st-level wizard spells	Six spells in spellbook, four prepared, three cantrips known.

Level 2 plan - use only after the DM awards level 2

Choice / feature	Plan
Arcane Tradition	Choose School of Divination.
Divination Savant	Divination spell-copying becomes cheaper and faster by the school's rule.
Portent	After a long rest, roll two d20s and record them. Replace a visible d20 roll with one of them when the feature allows it.
New spells in spellbook	Add two 1st-level wizard spells on level-up. Strong core choices: Feather Fall and Tasha's Hideous Laughter, or Identify if the party needs item support.
HP at level 2	Ask DM if using fixed HP or rolling. Fixed: +4 wizard average +2 CON = +6, total 14 HP.

Clean questions to ask at Session 0

1. Are we starting with Chapter 1 at level 1, or beginning later at level 5?
2. Are we using milestone advancement?
3. Can Alphie spend 10 gp before play on Find Familiar components, or should he buy them in-game?
4. Is Giant acceptable as his background language for a noble scholar in this campaign?
5. Do you want party backstory ties before we start, or should we meet in play?

One-page table introduction

"Alphie J. Roane - J, if you like - is a minor noble and first-level wizard trained to read patterns before they become disasters. Mechanically, he is a standard human wizard with Arcana and Investigation from class, History and Persuasion from noble background, and a defensive/control spellbook. He is intended for School of Divination at level 2, but has no subclass feature yet. He is here to be useful, careful, and loyal to the party."
